This survey course interrogates landscape sites, systems, and symbols from the Paleolithic to mid-nineteenth century. And thematically explores the writing, production, and performance of landscape and its histories through the diverse lenses of: power and ownership, memory and representation, knowledge and experience, labor and production, materiality and technological innovation, climate disruption and social change and race, class and gender.

_Everett L. Fly, Grace United Methodist Church and cemetery, Brazoria County, Texas founded on the former Levi Jordan Plantation_