

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE

COLLEGE OF BUILT ENVIRONMENTS

End-of-Year Note from the Chair

I hope this letter finds you and those close to you doing well as we enter the holiday season here in the U.S. This has been a year of change in the department as we have bid farewell to several faculty and welcomed new... yet there is a buzz of excitement again among our students, faculty, and others in the classrooms and studios as we continue to become familiar with in-person teaching and engagements that further creative and critical thinking in landscape architecture and our allied disciplines.

READ MORE

UW//LA JEDI Newsletter AUT '22

Part of the critical work of JEDI is consciousness-raising and we want to elevate the good work that is happening by and for the department. Read our quarterly newsletter that highlights and celebrates the work we have done and continue to do around equity and justice, as well as provide resources, events, and other opportunities for our department to move forward on these important topics.

WASLA: ASLA 2022 National Conference Stipend Recipients

Congratulations to the 2022 ASLA National Conference Stipend recipients, Kove Janeski and Natalie Weiss (both MLA '24), and Emerging Professionals Rebecca Bachman and Lauren Iversen (both MLA '20). Thanks to the generous support of our local ASLA - Washington Chapter, our students were able to attend this year's ASLA Conference in San Francisco.

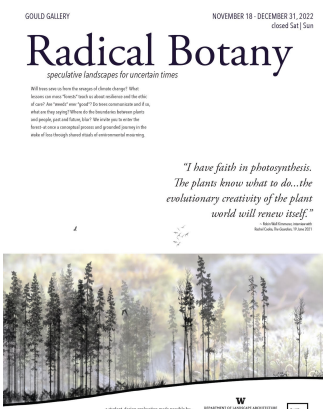

Amy Wagenfeld awarded for ASLA Outstanding Service

Congratulations to Amy Wagenfeld, affiliate associate professor, who received the ASLA Outstanding Service Award this past November at the 2022 ASLA Conference in San Francisco.

Catherine De Almeida in Landscape Architecture Magazine

If you've flipped through the November issue of LAM, you may have seen Assistant Professor Catherine De Almeida's important review of Fresh Banana Leaves by Jessica Hernandez. You can read Assistant Professor De Almeida's review at the link.

Radical Botany: Speculative Landscapes for Uncertain Times

Come check out the Seattle Design Festival installation from Elizabeth Umbanhowar's LA 407 studio in the Gould Gallery - now until December 16!

LAF Fellowship Spotlight: Landscape, Incarceration, and Rehabilitation

This fall, Professor Daniel Winterbottom is using his fellowship to conduct research on prisons and the role landscape plays in them.

Green Future's Lab: Molbak's Garden + Home will anchor the new Woodinville Gardens District

Seattle Time's Pacific Northwest Magazine recognized the Green Future Lab's work on the Woodinville 2030 / Molbak's project we completed a few years ago and will soon break ground.

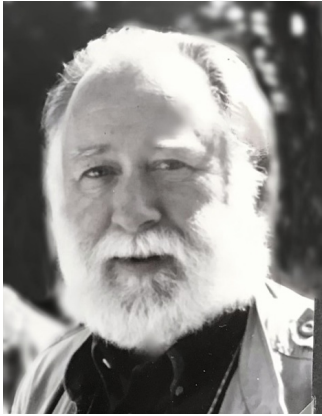

Video: How land design is answering the cultural needs of Native Americans in Seattle

Tim Lehman (Northern Arapaho), MLA graduate and lecturer, talks about his work with Daybreak Star Indian Cultural Center and local Indigenous communities. | The Seattle Times

In Memoriam: Sally Schauman

Professor Emeritus, passed away on April 10, 2022. Having joined the faculty in 1980 as Associate Professor, Sally helped to establish the Master of Landscape Architecture Program, and served as Chair of the Department for 12 years

Remembering Bob Buchanan

It is with great sadness that we remember Professor Emeritus Robert Buchanan. He passed away on July 31, 2022 surrounded by his loved ones. Bob was a beloved professor and mentor, and the second Chair of our Department of Landscape Architecture from 1969-1995.

MAKE A GIFT

LARCH HOME

CBE HOME

FORWARD TO A FRIEND

CONTACT US | PRIVACY | TERMS

© 2022 College of Built Environments
3950 University Way NE, Seattle, WA 98105

This email was sent to jencyli@uw.edu
Unsubscribe or change your email preferences