

Kasia Keeley, PLA, ASLA

Curriculum Vitae

2022 - Present Licensed Landscape Architect, Washington

Employment

2017 - Present Senior Associate, Project Manager
Mithun - Seattle, WA

2016 - 2017 Graphic Designer
Livable City Year Project
University of Washington and the City of Auburn

2016 Web Designer/Content Developer
Center for Preservation and Adaptive Reuse
University of Washington

2015 - 2016 Research Assistant
Green Futures Lab
University of Washington

Education

2017 University of Washington
Master Degree of Landscape Architecture

2007 SUNY University at Buffalo
Bachelor Degree of Fine Art – Printmaking, Bookmaking,
Papermaking
Minor in Comparative Literature; Minor in Environmental Studies

Lectures, Publications, and Awards

2026 Presenter, "Ambition at Scale: Rewards and Risks of Multi-Project Design Build Delivery," National ASLA Conference, Los Angeles, CA

2024 Work featured in "Advancing park design with progressive design-build project delivery," Journal of Daily Commerce, June 7, 2024

2023 Work featured in "Risks and Rewards", Landscape Architecture Magazine, October 2023

2021 Co-authored nomination to the National Register of Historic Places for Johnson Pit #30

2018 ASLA Student Award in General Design, Honor Award

2018 "Photographing Plutonium's Invisible Legacy." Edge Effects, 2018

Kasia Keeley, PLA, ASLA

2017	"Interacting with our Nuclear Landscapes." Kerb Journal , Edition 25
2017	Presenter, Nuclear Legacies: Community, Memory, Waste, and Nature Conference, Södertörn University Stockholm, Sweden
2016	Presenter, "The Social and Ecological Legacies of Post-industrial Sites and their Potential Futures (How I learned to Stop Worrying and Love Detritus)" WASLA Annual Conference, Spokane, WA
2016	Valle Scholar: Independent Research on Post-industrial Landscapes and Nuclear Heritage in US, Germany, Sweden, Norway
2015 - 2020	Co-student/Professional Representative on the UW Professional Advisory Committee